

To our dear customers:

As some of you have probably heard, we are in the process of selling UNWINED and expect that this transaction will be completed by the end of this month. We are extremely happy to say that the new owners plan to continue operating UNWINED just the same as we have.

We want to thank you all for your support over the past 6 years and ask that you provide the same great support for the new owners. Almaden would not have its own wine bar and fine wine shop without your continued patronage. We will always cherish the great memories, the people we have met and the friendships that we have developed. The main thing that we have learned is that we live in a truly great community!

It will be "business as usual" at UNWINED through the end of this month, so please stop in to enjoy a glass or pick out a bottle or two for the holiday celebrations. We plan to work closely with the new owners to ensure a smooth transition, so you may see us from time to time at the shop well into the New Year.

We wish you all a great holiday season and great happiness and fortune in 2012!

All the best,

Dan and Leticia
